FRONT COVER FEATURE

SONNET 43 COUNTY DURHAM

Brewing is how we express ourselves

We love and respect the hoppy stuff in all of its glorious forms. Our brews are our interpretation of the beer styles we love to drink, and the result is inevitably some seriously tasty pints you'll want to enjoy time and again. The names of our latest brews have all been influenced by Barret Browning's brave and momentous story.

ABOLITION £79.90

ABV: 3.8%
Colour: Amber
Hops: Fuggles, Northdown, Magnum

Be A Slave to tedious session bitters no longer! For all its relatively low alcohol, Abolition's malt bill delivers a full body. The coloured malts also add a slight sweetness as well as the ale's warm amber hue. British hops provide an earthy aroma and mid-range bittering. Highly drinkable, you'll never be parched again.

SERAPHIM £86.50

ABV: 4.1%
Colour: Blonde
Hops: Magnum, Sonnet, Simcoe

Beautiful in its simplicity, this light beer is a true to a traditional Blonde style - a light malt base delightful balances with full flavor hops. Generous amounts of wheat malt provide seraphim with its Velvet smoothness. The finish is crisp and dry with a slight sweetness. An easy-drinking, light ale.

THE RAVEN £89.70

ABV: 4.3%
Colour: Dark
Hops: Magnum, Celia, Bobek

Akin to Poe's ebony bird this brew is much more than meets the eye. Oats and a multitude of malts give the sweet stout its sumptuous base. Expect bitter, yet silky chocolateyness from the cocoa nibs and chocolate malts, giving way to the smoky sweetness from aging in former bourbon whiskey oak barrels. The Raven is a moreish combination and certainly not a case of "nevermore".
